MINUTES OF DISSENT

(I)

PARLIAMENTARY CONSTITUENCIES

Guntur District.

With regard to the Tenali and Guntur Parliamentary Constituencies I find in your proposal that the Ongole Sub-Division has been split up. Not only is the Ongole Sub-Division a single administrative unit but it is also a coastal region of Guntur District and as such has got similar problems and identity of interests in its constituent taluqs namely Ongole and Bapatla. Therefore I suggest that the Parliamentary Constituency of Guntur district be started from the Ongole Sub-Division with necessary re-adjustments in the Assembly Constituencies also if necessary. Roughly as for my suggestion the Parliamentary Constituencies of Guntur district would be as follows:—

- | | | | |
|--|----|---|------|
| 1. Bapatla and Ongole taluqs | .. | 1 | seat |
| 2. Tenali taluq and Guntur taluq excepting
Prattipad firka. | .. | 1 | seat |
| 3. Rest of Guntur district excepting Palnad taluq | .. | 1 | seat |

Any minor modifications may be made in order to work out the figures. However, the broad areas of the constituencies may be kept as suggested above.

Chittoor District.

In regard to Chittoor district Parliamentary Constituencies, in its interests of continuity of representation, I suggest that Chandragiri, Kalahasti, Puttoor and Tiruttani taluqs be made into a single member Constituency and the rest of the Chittoor district plus the taluqs Rayachotty and Rajampet be made a double member Constituency.

If, however, the Commission feels that this suggestion overlooks the fact that the areas where the density of Harijan population is greatest has been excluded from the double member constituency, I make an alternative suggestion. From the proposal I find that the whole of Chittoor district plus the taluqs of Rajampet and Rayachotti and two firkas of Cuddappah taluq in Cuddappah district are given a single member constituency and a double member constituency. In this region there is a certain contiguous area where the density of the Harijan population is greater than the rest of the region. I find that with taluqs of Tiruttani, Puttur, Chandragiri, Kalahasti and Rajampet, the density of Harijan population is very great. It is, therefore, reasonable that all these taluqs should figure in the double member constituency. My suggestion, therefore, is that Parliamentary Constituency No. 19 should consist of the taluqs of Punganur, Madanapalle, Vayalpad, Rayachotty, two firkas namely Chintakanmadinna and Pendlimarry in Cuddappah taluq plus Palamanar firka of Palamanar taluq. The name of the Constituency also will have to be changed suitably. Small adjustments may also be made to get the necessary figures for population.

The Constituency No. 18 will be as follows:

The rest of the Chittoor district plus Rajampet taluq in Cuddappah district.

Again necessary minor re-adjustments may be made to get the required total of population.

Nellore Parliamentary Constituency.

I find from the population figures that the district of West Godavari has got the density of 16.44 per cent. Harijan population whereas Nellore district has only 15.72 per cent. Therefore, I feel that Nellore district be made into two single member Parliamentary Constituencies and the plural seat be shifted to West Godavari district.

ASSEMBLY CONSTITUENCIES.

Constituencies 61 and 62.

With reference these two constituencies, I suggest that Narsapur and Mogaltur firkas be made into a single member constituency and the rest of Narsapur taluq be made into a double member constituency. The reason is that Dhottipedda firka with a Harijan population of 11,500 figures in the single member constituency in the proposals of the Commission. It is strange that a firka which has got the maximum number of Harijan population in the taluq should figure in the single member constituency.

Therefore my proposal is as follows:—

01 Narsapur—Narsapur and Mogaltur firkas.

02 Palacole—Narsapur taluq excluding Narsapur and Mogaltur firkas.

Constituencies Nos. 7 and 11.

In these two constituencies, the firkas of Palakonda and Amadalavalasa may be interchanged i.e., No. 7 would read Nagarikatakam in Srikakulam taluq and Bhurja and Palakonda firkas in Palakonda taluq. No. 11 would read as Amadalavalasa in Srikakulam taluq and Honjaram in Palakonda taluq.

The merit of this suggestion for alteration is that while keeping the contiguity, the distribution of population in these two constituencies is made more even.

Constituencies Nos. 69, 70 and 71.

I suggest that the whole taluq of Nandigam be made into a double member constituency and the taluq of Divi be made into a single member constituency.

My reasons are Nandigam is a single administrative unit and can be made into a double member constituency. Divi taluq is also a single administrative unit but it is more or less bisected by river Kistna and can conveniently be made into two single member constituencies on either side of the river. As regards the density of Harijan population it is more or less the same in both the taluqs. Any slight variation may be overlooked in consideration of the natural boundaries created by the river Kistna in Divi taluq.

Constituency No. 118.

I find in the proposal that Nagari firka in Puttur taluq is tagged on to Kalahasti taluq. Though on the map Nagari firka appears to be contiguous to Kalahasti taluq owing to lack of communication and the mountaneous nature of the region it can only be reached by a circuitous route. Therefore I suggest that either Narayanavaram firka or Tirupathi firka be joined with Kalahasti taluq to form a double member constituency.

I am considerably exercised over the point that, taking by and large the general approach of the Commission to delimitation, fundamental changes have been made in the existing constituencies of the State both for the House of the People and the State Assembly. I am constrained to say that these radical changes which, generally speaking, do not obtain any justification in any cogent manner, would completely upset the electoral system, to which the country is getting accustomed to since General Elections in 1952. I am persuaded that the Election Commission, even in terms of the requirements of the increased and increasing populations from time to time, is only charged with the task of making suitable minor adjustments to constituencies under the provisions of the Act. But the proposals, unfortunately, cut at the very root of constituencies, with the result that I desire to formulate my objections to these proposals under the following major heads :

(1) As I understand it, the purpose of the proposed delimitation by the Commission is to make minor adjustments, arising out of population growth to constituencies for both the House of the People and the State Assembly. It now turns out to be that almost all the existing constituencies have been altered completely out of shape. When Parliament passed the Delimitation Commission Act of 1952, it was not, I venture to say, its intention to empower the Commission to make changes as if to suggest that the delimitation of constituencies on the basis of which 1952 elections were organised was completely out of order.

(2) The principle of nursing the constituency will become abrogated if the proposals of the Commission for delimitation as contained in the scheme now proposed goes through.

(3) The States Reorganisation Commission is now abreast of its work, and its possible proposals, in terms of repeated commitments of Government in Parliament, would mean further delimitation before the next general elections take place, certainly of a State like Andhra, and also of some other States. If such re-delimitation becomes necessary, then the principle of nursing the constituency would be further nullified.

(4) I had hoped that before the Commission arrived at these proposals for delimitation, the Associate Members of the Commission would at least be supplied with the memoranda of the District officials on the basis of which presumably these proposals have emanated. No such memoranda have been supplied to me, and my enquiries show that in my part of the country the District officials have not submitted such memoranda.

(5) For several months past, there were public statements by Andhra Ministers referring to the existence of a memorandum of the composite Government of Madras (i.e., before the creation of Andhra into a State) regarding delimitation. I put myself in correspondence with the Secretary of the Delimitation Commission and his letter No. 58/27/53 of the 13th February, 1954 inter alia runs as follows, as far as this point goes. "I am to state that there are no proposals of the composite Government of Madras—Andhra with the Commission." Since the Ministers of Andhra State reported in the papers to have referred to the proposals of the composite Government of Madras before partition, I was in correspondence with the Minister for Finance and Law of the Andhra State, Shri T. Viswanathan, and his letter of the 21st February, 1954, runs, in part, as follows: "The proposals so far made were made entirely at the office level and that was done at the time of the composite State. The Andhra Government Departments are just now looking into the matter." I regret to say that I cannot understand the positions taken up by the Commission and by Ministers of the Andhra Government in the manner quoted above, for I along with several other people, both in Parliament and outside, were most anxious to apply our minds to the proposals of the composite Government of Madras, but this opportunity was not made available to me to offer my considered opinion on the proposals and their implications.

(6) I regret further that I was prevented from attending the meeting of the Commission at Kurnool, even though I had conveyed my difficulties to the Commission in regard to the fact that the first meeting was to have been held on the day when the Budget was to be presented to Parliament, and the postponed meeting of the Commission clashed with the opening of the budget discussion. Actually, I went on record on 22nd February, 1954, in my letter to the Secretary of the Delimitation Commission as follows: "I and my colleagues in Parliament would always be glad to attend meetings of this character, but an attempt must be made by the Commission to consult generally our convenience. For example, I am on a large number of Committees of Parliament and abrupt and short announcements of dates will certainly throw out of gear work which cannot be avoided by one placed like me." Frequent and peremptory changes of dates of meetings unfortunately prevented me from being present at the meeting of the Commission in Kurnool, where I had hoped my assistance will be available to the Commission. I recall—all these points only to show that the speed with which the Commission is proposing to publish its proposals on the 21st of this month need not be there, because there is no contingency of elections taking place in Andhra in the immediate future. I still hope that the Commission would defer publication of these proposals until the opinion of all the people concerned who are interested in this problem are properly collected.

(7) I want to go on record, on information made available, to me from appropriate quarters, that the Andhra Government itself was most anxious not to have the meeting held in Kurnool for the reason that it was in the midst of the budget session and suggested postponement thereof. Up to the moment I am not sure there were any proposals of the Andhra Government regarding delimitation. I record this point only to show that the publication of the present proposals by the Delimitation Commission on the 21st of this month in the absence of the advice of the Andhra Government, would have severe repercussions, particularly in the light of the fact that the proposals in discussion now show an element of peremptoriness and speed which are hardly justified by the circumstances.

(8) It would not be possible for me to comment on the delimitation of each of the constituencies of the House of the People and the State Assembly, but I would like to record here two illustrative points of some importance.

- (a) The Scheduled Tribes constituency of the Andhra State, under the proposals of the Commission is added to the Vizianagram M.P. constituency. I happen to be the representative of the present Visakhapatnam double-member constituency, including the Scheduled Tribes Reserved. During the past three years I had repeatedly stated in public that the making of the present Visakhapatnam constituency a double-member constituency for Scheduled Tribes had meant the disfranchisement of a considerable number of Scheduled Tribes people who happen to be in the present Rajahmundry M.P. constituency. Actually the Scheduled Tribes of the present Rajahmundry M.P. constituency and the Visakhapatnam M.P. constituency should have been brought together for the delimitation purposes. That this was not done is bad enough. What is worse is the present proposals made by the Commission to make the Vizianagram M.P. constituency a double-member constituency for Scheduled Tribes. I know these areas well, and mere geography alone is a point against the proposal. I feel that the unification of the Scheduled Tribes of the Andhra State is a primary consideration for the Delimitation Commission, the Governments concerned and the people themselves. Equity and justice would demand the creation of a joint Scheduled Tribes constituency with the Rajahmundry M.P. area to which the Scheduled Tribes areas of Visakhapatnam should be joined. I feel this is a matter which requires complete re-examination, so that the interests of the Scheduled Tribes, admittedly the most backward of the people of this country, are not put in jeopardy.
- (b) The delimitation of Chittoor and Krishna Districts also, this time in relation to the Scheduled Castes, requires careful re-examination. I do not wish to offer detailed reasons for this, as also for a number of other issues involved in the proposals of the Delimitation Commission particularly with reference to the delimitation of M.L.A. constituencies. As far as Visakhapatnam District is concerned, with which I am personally familiar, there is a number of difficulties in the proposals of the Delimitation Commission, for example, with reference to the Tallapalem firka and the Madugole, Chodavaram and Paravada constituencies. These are just sample illustrations.

(9) I am most anxious that the proposals of the Delimitation Commission should not give rise to any justifiable grievance that considerations other than those involved in population growth have become involved. I desire that these proposals should be finalised after due consideration, and without any undue hurry, and only after the Andhra Government indicates its viewpoints.

1. Out of the two reserved seats allotted to Krishna District, it is necessary that one should be allotted to the Western part of the District and the other to the Eastern part of the District as the District has already been divided into, West Krishna and East Krishna as can be seen from the fact two District Educational Officers and District Congress Committees are functioning in the District. Therefore, the reserved seat now allotted to Tiruvur Constituency (in West Krishna) should not be shifted to any constituency in East Krishna and if in any case it is to be shifted on the grounds of contiguity, it may be shifted to Nandigama Taluk, making the entire taluk into a double member constituency where the Harijan population is 30,368 and this taluk is in West Krishna.

2. Divi Constituency comprises the entire Divi taluk which is a very wide area when compared to the other constituencies in the district. Further, on account of the flow of River Krishna across Divi taluk there are no proper communications from one part to the other part of the Constituency. Therefore, it is essential that this Constituency should be split up and made into two single member constituencies. This is further made easy by the flow of R. Krishna which divides the Constituency into two equal, compact, contiguous single-member constituencies as shown below:—

		Total seats	R. S.
CHALLAPALLI :	Challapalli and Kaza firkas in Divi Taluk	1	...
AVANIGADDA :	Divi taluk excluding Challapalli and Kaza Firkas	1	..

As per this proposals, the reserved seat now allotted to Divi may be shifted to Gudivada constituency which may now comprise the entire Gudivada taluk and Kanukollu Firka in Kaikalur Taluk which is already accepted by the Commission.

If these two proposals are accepted, there will be no changes in the parliamentary constituencies proposed by the Commission.

3. In the alternative, the reserved seat may be shifted to Pamarru constituency and the constituencies may be re-arranged as follows:

PAMARRU :	Gudivada Taluk excluding Gudivada and Nandivada Firkas, Kapileswarapuram Firka in Gannavaram taluk and Vallur Firka in Vijayavada taluk	2	1
KANKIPADU :	Kankipadu firka in Vijayavada taluk and Vuyyur Firka in Gannavaram taluk.	1	..

If Pamarru is made into a double-member Constituency, the percentage of Harijans that would be benefited would be 16·61 as against 16·13 in Divi constituency proposed by the Commission. (ii) Further, Harijans from three taluks but within a small area would be entitled to elect their representative unlike Harijans in one (Divi) taluk proposed by the Commission. (iii) The area of this Pamarru (double-member) constituency will be less than half the area of Divi Constituency (as proposed by the Commission) as can be seen from the fact that the density of population of Pamarru is 925 persons per square mile as against 570 in Divi constituency.

4. The above proposals for the Assembly constituencies result in very minor changes in the two Parliamentary constituencies in Krishna District which are shown below:

10. MASULIPATAM. Bhimavaram taluk of West Godavary district; Kaikalur, Bandar taluks, Gudivada and Nandivada firkas in Gudivada taluk and Gannavaram and Veeravalli firkas in Gannavaram taluk. 7,67,672 77,220 10·06—1
11. CHALLAPALLI. Kankipadu and Vallur firkas in Vijayavada taluk, (Gudivada name deleted) Vuyyur and Kapileswarapuram firkas in Gannavaram taluk, Gudivada (excluding Gudivada and Nandivada firkas), Divi taluk and Repalle taluk, of Guntur district. 7,03,573 89,450 12·71—1

From the proposed Vizianagaram Double Parliamentary constituency, take away Chodavaram and Madgole Assembly constituencies and add them to the Visakhapatnam Parliamentary constituencies. From the proposed Visakhapatnam Parliamentary constituency delete Bhogapuram and Revidi Assembly constituencies and add them to Vizianagaram Double Parliamentary constituencies. This change has got to be effected for the following reasons :

- (i) By the above change there will be contiguity and compactness of the areas in the respective Parliamentary constituencies.
- (ii) There will not be any change in the population required for the Parliamentary constituency.
- (iii) There will be less difficulty for contestants to see all parts of the constituencies as there are roads and other communications in my suggested Parliamentary constituencies.

I hope that the above changes may be accepted by the Commission.
